San Clemente Historic District

In February 2005 San Clemente was placed on the National Register as a Historic District. Many thanks to the great efforts of the dedicated volunteers who worked on the project and to the City of Tucson for their strong support. This was quite a feat and we're very proud of our new district.

We still have costs ahead of us for the district, in particular the purchase of historic district signs. The district was made possible through grants and the generous contributions of persons who donated $100 per household and in some cases $200 per household. If you have not already contributed but would like to assist in covering costs for the historic district—and are interested in property tax savings on your house—please send a check for $100 made out to San Clemente Neighborhood Association (or SCNA) to Tony Haswell, Treasurer of San Clemente Neighborhood Association, at 3935 E. Calle de Jardin, Tucson, 85711.

We will also have historic district sign designs and photos from other Tucson historic districts that you'll be able to review at the picnic. We hope to select a design soon so we can purchase these signs and get them put up in the neighborhood.

Other News

Many thanks to folks who contributed funds to our neighborhood school, Lineweaver Elementary, as part of the Arizona State tax credit program. The school is accepting donations for after-school and extracurricular activities for the 2005 tax year. This is a direct dollar-for-dollar tax credit where you can direct some of your taxes to assist school programs ($250 direct tax credit per joint tax return, $200 tax credit per individual tax return). Please call the school at 232-7700 to arrange your donation. The Lineweaver Lions and Principal Jane Klipp thank you for your support!

Also, please note that San Clemente now has a new website thanks to the great efforts of volunteers. It's just a beginning, so any content suggestions would be greatly appreciated. We hope to post photos of different historic district signs in Tucson and designs submitted by residents for consideration to be our San Clemente Historic District sign. We also plan to list community events, give updates on neighborhood happenings and concerns, and provide links to other good neighborhood websites and resources. Please see www.historicsanclemente.org and drop us a line.
